BANK SUSPENDED.—A telegraphic despatch from Louisville, Ky., dated 26th ult., says that the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Memphis Tenn., had suspended payment.

The Fond du Lac Herald expresses itself in opposition to the proposed amendment of the constitution so as to create biennial sessions of the legislature. Every paper in the state which has yet spoken, takes the same ground.—Mad. Argus.

The Argus is mistaken. Several papers which expressed their opinion last spring when the law was passed, declared themselves in favor of the change. The only defect we can see in the proposed amendment is, that special sessions may be called. Avoid this, by a strict prohibition, and we venture that annual sessions will find as little favor with the people as the Nebraska bill. The state has already had legislation enough of a certain character for half a dozen generations, and the prospect of any improvement hereafter is too remote to warrant the experiment of a continuance of the present system.

AN ESTHETIC CAUCUS.—The democratic caucus in the 3d ward to appoint delegates to the senatorial and assembly conventions which are to send delegates to the Mineral Point congressional convention, was attended by three persons. Of these two were residents of the ward, and the third a non-resident. The two residents were appointed officers, and the non-resident made and seconded the motions. With commendable impartiality, the two officers divided the delegates equally between them, one taking the senatorial and the other the assembly.

SENATORIAL.—Wm. C. Rives has authorized the editor of the Charlotteville Advocate to say that he has retired from all party and political contests. He wishes to forget the name of whig, and have it forgotten.

This paragraph is meeting a good deal of favor in the local Nebraska press. It seems to us, however, that the boon of oblivion should be more healthily prayed for by the hitherto dominant "democratic" than the oft-defeated whig party. The latter goes from the field, if it does go, with no stain upon its banner, while its once victorious opponent is doomed to a hopeless rout, disgraced within itself and deserted by its best men, leaving the memory only of a broken faith and perverted use of power.

A LITTLE WARM.—Day before yesterday the thermometer reached 100 in the shade, and stood as high as 99 for five or six consecutive hours. In the evening a cool wind came up and made a good promise of rain. The prospect continued into yesterday morning, but ultimately failed to realize the expectation induced, and the sun in the course of the day got up nearly to its old heat.

A PRODUCTIVE SOIL.—Captain Malcom has just moved the third heavy crop of clover from a small piece of ground adjoining his dwelling in this city. He will have still another crop, making four in one season. We do not believe this is to be beaten any where.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE.—A large number of our papers having been ordered by the Methodist conference now in session, we republish the proceedings of the first day for the use of its members.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of "the young ladies' seminary."

The Washington Star says that the administration fully approves Commander Hollins' official account of the bombardment of Greytown, and will shield him against all such ridiculous suits as that brought against him in New York.

THE BAPTIST COLLEGE.—There was considerable strife as to the location of this institution, various towns bidding high for it. At Columbus 50 acres of land and the money and labor to build a spacious brick edifice, were offered, but Beaver Dam took the prize.

AN EARLY DEATH.—"Young America," senator Douglas' paper in Chicago, has "kicked the bucket." A new "organ," to be called the "Chicago Times" is to take its place, and sing the same tune of its predecessor. In this case, what was the necessity for the youngster to lay down so quietly to his last repose?

David Taylor, the independent candidate for congress in this district, has been speaking in Grant county. From an allusion we find to him elsewhere we infer that he is anti-Nebraska. His card declaring himself a candidate did not avow his position on that question.

THE ACCIDENT AT FULTON.—The Wisconsin gives the following particulars of the accident at the Fulton depot. The woman had in her arms a little boy who was slightly injured. The little fellow was too much frightened by the calamity and the strangers who surrounded him to tell his name. He was cared for. An unclaimed trunk marked "Maria Moore, Ills." was on the morning's train.

THE CHOLERA.—This frightful disease appears to be deserting our cities and towns, as we hear no more of its ravages to any extent in places which have been most affected by it. Perhaps in no season that it has visited us has it been more fatal, and taken away those whose loss both in a business and social view could be more deplored.

But now we hope its death-cravings have been satisfied, and if it has not entirely disappeared from the country it has left us for the season. It has foiled every attempt of knowledge to stay its progress, and although now, as it were, has proved a permanent disease among us, yet there is none of our wise men who could agree upon its treatment—or render aid to the many millions that have been swept into oblivion by its dark waters.—Bacon's Advocate.

WISCONSIN ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, Aug. 31st.
Conference convened at 8 o'clock, Bishop Morris in the chair. The session was opened by reading the scriptures, singing and prayer, by J. S. Prescott.

Rev. Mr. Poe, assistant agent of the Western Book Concern, at Cincinnati, presented the subject of his mission to the conference.

The following resolutions were then passed:
Resolved, That E. C. Jones be appointed a reporter for the papers published in this place.
Resolved, That we dispense with calling the roll during the remainder of the conference.

Conference then resumed the consideration of the 2d question on the general minutes. Eliza Page, John Hooper, John Ferry, Christopher C. Mason, Levi W. M'Schooler, Aaron Griswold and Riley R. Hamilton were continued on trial. John M. Shultz was discontinued at his own request.

The 4th question on the general minutes was then taken up. The characters of John L. Dyer, Thos. C. Golden, David O. Jones, Robert Cobban, Thos. Orison, Richard Dudgeon, Henry Wood, Rowland Moffatt, Jas. T. Prior, Nicholas Mayne, and George Chester, were passed.

Rev. Mr. Foot, being introduced as a delegate from the general association of the Congregational Church, was invited to address the conference.

He stated that he had come to present the Christian salutations and sympathies of his church to the Wisconsin conference; that both churches were engaged in the same great work, laboring in the same vineyard, preaching the same gospel, and having in view the same great object—that of evangelizing the world; and that it was very desirable that both bodies should act in harmony as far as practicable.

Bishop Morris responded to this address with some very appropriate and happy remarks.

Rev. Mr. Elliott, agent of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the conference.

The 5th question of the general minutes was then taken up. Samuel Watts, Wm. H. Thomson, R. Blackburn, Joseph C. Dana, Samuel L. Leonard, J. M. S. Maxson, James Lawson, Obed E. Hall, James H. Scott, and Wm. Shroff were elected to elders orders. The characters of Job B. Mills, Hiram Hersey, Wm. Owens, Edwin S. Bunce, and R. S. Hayward, were passed.

During the examination of character animated discussions frequently sprung up, different opinions were expressed, and various courses of policy were proposed; but the good feeling, Christian courtesy, and brotherly love which prevailed, gave conclusive evidence that Methodist ministers may differ widely in their views with regard to many things, without permitting any alienation of feeling or discord among themselves.

On motion it was
Resolved, That Jabez Brooks be an auditing committee to settle with the preachers for the minutes.

The hour for adjournment having arrived, the session was closed with prayer by James H. Scott.

ELI C. JONES, Conf. Reporter.

JANESVILLE Aug. 31, 1854.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:

GENTS:—I suppose the report that "a determination has been arrived by individuals connected with the Milwaukee and Mississippi road to drive business from Janesville," to most men, seems to carry in its face its own refutation.

The silly story, however, as you suggest, may have "obtained credence with some." If so, and there are men who believe that such is the policy of the M. & M. Co., I will pay any enterprising individual who will substantiate the report, by such evidence as would be good in a court of justice, one hundred dollars for his services and expenses in the undertaking.

Yours, etc. J. J. R. PEASE.

AN ESCAPE.—As the steamboat Mayflower was nearing her dock, yesterday afternoon, the barber, a negro man, named Hoover, saw standing upon the dock, in company with several police officers, a person whom he recognized as his former master, from whose custody Hoover escaped many years since. Suspecting that he was in danger if he remained there, Hoover ran forward, and as the bow of the Mayflower approached the stern of the Plymouth Rock, he jumped upon the deck of the latter vessel, and dropped down into a small boat lying alongside, worked her round, under the dock, crawled along until he reached the ferry boat International, which runs to Fort Era, and was just ready for leaving, ascended quickly to her deck and, in a few moments, was in Canadian waters and safe. Hoover is a man of some thirty years of age, has resided in Buffalo for many years, and has a family here. It is remarkable that he should recognize his master, from whom he ran away when only ten years old.—Buffalo Democracy.

A NEW AMERICAN DOLLAR.—The editor of the Washington Star says that he saw, on Thursday morning, a new dollar coin which had been sent to the secretary of the treasury from the Philadelphia mint for his sanction. "In size it is about that of a five cent piece; on one side it has an Indian head with a crown of feathers, such as one sees at times on tobacco boxes." The head is surrounded by the words "United States of America." On the reverse side, there is an open wreath composed of the principal staple agricultural productions of the country—wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and rice. This wreath surrounds the words "1 dollar, 1854." In appearance, on this side especially, it precisely resembles the three dollar coin. On the whole it is a beautiful thing, and its great diameter will be likely to make it much more acceptable than the dollar coin now in circulation, which has proved very inconvenient indeed, on account of its too small diameter.

FALLING OF A BUILDING.—Two large granite buildings on Broad street, in Boston, fell one day last week with a tremendous crash, owing to the imperfect condition of the foundations. Three persons are known to have been killed by the fall, and it is feared others were fatally injured. The loss is $120,000.

R. R. V. U. RAILROAD.—At a meeting of the directors of this company held at their office in New York a few days since, it was determined to lease to Messrs. Bradley & Co., (the contractors for the construction) that portion of the road already completed from this city to Wau-pun. By the terms of this lease Messrs. B. & Co. are required to keep the track in good running order, and to make such additions to the motive power and rolling stock as are necessary to secure regularity and despatch in the daily running of trains over the road. This lease terminates whenever the track is laid to Watertown. At this meeting two new directors were also appointed to fill vacancies: Messrs. Charles Butler of New York, and J. Hickok, of Burlington, Vt., both of them men of wealth, who have had much experience in railroad. A committee was also appointed to confer with the bond-holders as to the policy of converting their bonds into stock, and we have strong hopes that this proposition will be adopted by those who are interested. Should they do so it would place the affairs of the company in such a position that by a united and vigorous effort, and a liberal subscription to stock on the part of the people living on the line of the road, the work could be resumed and prosecuted to an early and successful completion to Chicago. At the same meeting a call of ten per cent was made on the stock, and a meeting of stockholders called at Janesville on the 10th day of October next. We hope that next year will at least see us connected with the lake shore by railroad, either via Horicon or Watertown.—Fond du Lac Union.

SARATOGA AND AUBURN.—We have seen no correct account of the closing proceedings of the anti-Nebraska convention at Saratoga; and, as some importance is attached to them, we will endeavor from memory to supply the deficiency.

The committee on resolutions, after having agreed upon those forming the platform submitted to and adopted by the convention, considered the subject of giving effect to those resolves by nominations and votes and finally agreed upon the following:

10. Resolved, That when this convention adjourns it adjourn to meet again in Auburn at 10 o'clock A. M. of Tuesday, Sep. 16, charged with the duty of presenting candidates for state officers, to be supported at the ensuing election, who shall represent and uphold the principles embodied in these resolutions;—and that if there shall then be candidates already in nomination, fully, openly, and satisfactorily committed to these principles, then it is our judgment that such candidates should be adopted by said convention at Auburn; but if not, then independent candidates should be nominated.

Mr. Greeley, in reporting the platform and the above, stated that they were all that had been formally adopted by the committee; but there was another which had been in substance agreed to, though overlooked in the inevitable haste of preparation to meet the convention on its re-assembling at 3 P. M. That resolution, which he could not only offer as a delegate, having no opportunity to consult his colleagues, was as follows:

11. Resolved, That to said convention at Auburn, each assembly district not represented in this body, be invited to send delegates; and in the divisions of said convention a majority of the delegates present from any assembly district be authorized to cast the vote of said district.

The former of these resolves having provoked much opposition, and the hour growing late, Mr. Raymond, acting for the majority of the committee, as a peace-offering withdrew the latter half of it—(all that relates to candidates already in nomination)—and asked a vote on the remainder, which was carried by an overwhelming majority; and then Mr. Raymond asked a vote on the last resolution, as above, which was likewise carried. Thereupon the convention adjourned without day. Such are the essential but hitherto misstated facts.—N. Y. Tribune.

EXCITING SCENE IN COURT.—On Monday evening an amusing, though rather pointed passage at arms took place between Recorder Summers and Counsellor Field, when the case of the fair but frail Jennie Gleeson was on the tapis, and when the case was closed, the counsellor protested against the act as an outrage on public justice. Having elect over the matter, the recorder took his seat on the following morning, (yesterday) and the counsellor took spiritual consolation. Eventually the counsellor took it into his head to go before the recorder, and when there, he asked permission to make a motion. Leave being granted, he launched into a running commentary on what he was pleased to consider the recorder's illegal act of the previous evening, whereupon the recorder told him to "hold on." And so the counsellor did hold on, in a sense different, however, from that intended by the recorder. This brought the blood to the recorder's face, and the ire to his bile, and bringing his knuckles down hard on the desk before him, he ordered the counsellor to be committed to prison for twenty-four hours for contempt of court!

The counsellor here observed that since the present recorder had been presiding, the court had generally been considered a legitimate object of contempt; and then, shaking his finger at the recorder, he said, "while clothed in your little brief authority, you may play after this fashion, your fantastic tricks, but the time will come when I shall meet you on equal terms, and then I shall have my revenge, for I consider you to be nothing but a d—d jackass."

At this juncture the recorder abruptly adjourned the court, and springing from his magisterial tripod, appeared determined to visit the portly counsellor with a touch of the lex talionis.

The counsellor observing the rapid movement, said, "I'm ready for you, but if you dare to lay a hand on me I'll kill you as dead as h—!" drawing, at the same time, from his vest, as pretty a "bull dog" as ever drove a piece of cold lead through a fellow's bread-basket.

The police here interposed; the recorder retired to his seat, and the counsellor was conveyed to prison to purge himself of his contempt.—N. O. True Delta 16th.

COL. BENTON BARE LEGGED.—John Wentworth in one of his recent Washington letters, develops the following curious anecdote of Col. Benton:

"When the House adjourned on Monday morning sine die, there were about a dozen present. Col. Benton and myself were the only ones from the west. The Colonel had prepared himself for a hot morning, by leaving vest, cravat and stockings at home. He wore light and low slippers, which showed nature's stockings to great advantage. When asked where he got his stockings, he said he got them of his mother, seventy odd years ago, and there never had been a hole in them."

By a private letter from Europe we learn that Prince John Van Buren was at Leimington Spa, England, for the benefit of the waters, accompanied by Sir Benjamin Brodie, the eminent physician. The prince, we understand, is in delicate health, and will soon return home, being unable to pursue his European tour, as at first contemplated.—Herald.

From the New York Evening Post—
Niagara Falls—Doesticks on a Bender.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have been to Niagara, you know—Niagara falls—big rocks, water, foam, Table Rock, Indian curiosities, squaws, moccasins, stuffed snakes, rapids, wolves, Chifton House, Suspension bridge, place where the water runs swift, the ladies faint, scream and get the paint washed off their faces; where the aristocratic Indian ladies sit on the dirt and make little bags; where all the inhabitants swindle strangers; where the cars go in a hurry, the waiters are impudent and all the small boys swear.

When I came in sight of the Suspension bridge, I was vividly impressed with the idea that it was some bridge, in fact a considerable curiosity, and a considerable bridge—took a glass of beer; and walked under the falls;—another glass of beer and walked away from the falls;—walked away from the falls, wet through, mad; triumphant, victorious, humbug!—humbug! sir, all humbug! except the dabbiness of everything, which is most certainly, and the cupid of everybody, which is a diabolical fact, and the Indians and niggers everywhere, which is a satanic truth.

Another glass of beer—was forthcoming—immediately—also, another, all of which I drank. I then proceeded to drink a glass of beer, went over to the states, where I procured a glass of beer—went up stairs, for which I paid a sixpence, over to Goat Island, for which I disbursed twenty-five cents, hired a guide, to whom I paid half a dollar—sneezed four times, at nine cents a sneeze—went up on the tower for a quarter of a dollar and looked at the falls—didn't feel sublime, and tried to but couldn't, took some beer, and tried again but failed—drank a glass of beer and began to feel better—thought the waters were sent for and were on a journey to the—thought the place below was one sea of beer—was going to jump down and get some, guided held me; sent him over to the hotel to get a glass of beer, while I tried to write some poetry; result as follows:

O thou (spray in one eye) awful (small lobster in right shoe) sublime (both feet wet) masterpiece of (jimmey), what a lie, the Almighty! Terrible and majestic art thou in thy tremendous might—awful (orful) to behold, (cramp in my right shoulder), gigantic, huge and nice. Oh, thou that tumblest down and riseth up again in misty majesty to Heaven—thou glorious parent of a thousand rainbows—what a huge, grand, awful, terrible tremendous, infinite old swindling humbug you are; what are you doing there, you rapids you—you know you've tumbled over the rocks, and can't get up again to save your puny existence; you make a great fuss, don't you?

Man came back with the beer, drank it to the last drop and wished there had been a gallon more—walked out on a rock to the fall, woman on shore very much frightened—told her not to get excited if I fell over, as I would step right up again—it would not be much of a fall anyhow—got a glass of beer of a man, another of a woman, another of two small boys with a pail—fifteen minutes elapsed when I purchased some of an Indian woman and imbibed it through a straw; it wasn't good—had to get a glass of beer to take the taste out of my mouth; legs began to tingle up, effect of the spray in my eyes—got hungry and wanted something to eat—went into an eating house, called for a plate of beans when the plate brought the waiter in his hand I took it, hung up my beef and beans on a nail, eat my hat, paid dollar to nigger, and sidled out on the step walk; bought a boy of a glass of dog with a small beer and a neck on his tail, with a collar with a spot on the end; got some water in a tin cup drank the cup and placed the soda on the counter, and paid for the money full of pocket—very bad headache; rubbed it against the lamp post and then stumped along; station house came along and said if I didn't go straight he'd take me to the watchman—tried to oblige the station house, very civil station house, very met a baby with an Irishwoman and a wheelbarrow in it, couldn't get out of the way, she wouldn't walk on the side walk, but insisted on going on both sides of the street at once; tried to walk between her; consequence collision, awful—knocked out the wheelbarrow's nose, broke the Irishwoman all to pieces, baby loose, court house handy took me to the constable, jury sat on me, and the jail said the magistrate must take me to the constable; objected; the dung on put me into the darkest constable in the city; got out, and here I am, prepared to stick to my original opinion—Niagara unus humbug! non excelsus, non indignus admiralooni.

Yours unquestionably,

Q. R. PHYLANDER DOESTICKS, P. B.

The Buffalo Democrat relates the following:—"We saw a German youth perform a feat, the other day with a street-washing hose, which, we venture a wager, he will never repeat. He was wetting down the walk, and for some purpose, desired to stop the stream for a moment, but there being no pipe on the hose, he attempted to hold it with his teeth! He succeeded pretty well for a short time, but in an unlucky fit of absent-mindedness, he released his hold, and there ensued a scene! He seemed to fill up and run over in a second; his face assumed a purple tinge, his eyes projected, and his hands waved about insanely. Instead of letting go of the tube, he started to run, and it was only when he had stretched the hose to its length that he let it fall from his mouth; then he did not stop running. It was the most ludicrous result of stupidity we ever witnessed."

A tipsy man went into a Sunday school and for a few moments listened very attentively to the questions propounded to the scholars, but being anxious to show his knowledge of "scripture" and doctrine, he stood up leaning on the front of the pew with both hands:

"Parson B—," said he, "ask me some of them hard ques-shuns."

"Uncle John," said the parson with a solemn face and in a drawing tone, "don't you know you are in the bonds of sin, and the depths of iniquity?"

"Yes'ir, and in the gall of bitterness too.—Ask me another ques-shun."

Mr. Henry Ackman, of Stonehouse Plains, was fatally injured on Tuesday, while harrowing in a field. It appears that the horses stepped into a bee's nest, when being stung by the bees, they became unmanageable, and dragged Mr. A. after them for some distance, he being unable to disengage his hands from the reins. The harrow tore out his entrails, and otherwise horribly mutilated him. He died from his injuries on Friday, the 11th instant.

HARD TIMES FOR MERCHANTS IN CALIFORNIA.—The San Francisco Shipping List thinks that a great portion of the goods now crumming that market will rot in store. Every thing is held too high; and holders of real estate prefer not to rent at all, rather than to lower their demand. A great number of buildings are now vacant, in consequence of the high prices asked for them. In one section in which there are 1025 buildings, 347 were found to be unoccupied, and yet scarcely a hole large enough for an apple stand could be rented for less than $100 per month.

THE ALBANY ARGUS closes an article on the administration as follows:
"In spite of lamentations" at Washington and elsewhere—perfidy and venality in high and low places, is as surely destined to receive its reward, as the election in '56 will present the avenging opportunity. Mark the prediction!

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INS.
Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843.
Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security to all concerned in the business, and the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the success of the company, and their personal attention, and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by the receipt of the husband's creditors, and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently, they have a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

G. H. & L. LAFLIN,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

THE DAILY GAZETTE.
[Reported for the Janesville Gazette.]
Wisconsin Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

FIRST DAY.
The seventh session of this body was convened in the first M. E. Church of this city, to-day, at 9 o'clock A. M., the venerable Bishop Monahan, of Cincinnati, Ohio, presiding.

The conference was opened by the bishop in the use of the usual ceremonies. The preachers were generally present from the various parts of the conference, which embraces the state of Wisconsin, a small portion of Illinois and the territory of Minnesota.

There are about one hundred and fifty preachers in the body, all of whom seem in the enjoyment of their usual health and in fine spirits. Although the greater portion of the preachers present are in the earlier walks of ministerial life, they appear intelligent, devoted, and resigned to the work in which they are engaged.

After the opening services, the Rev. Mr. Randall, assistant secretary for the past year, called the names of the preachers, those present answering to their names. The president then called upon the conference to appoint a secretary for the present year; whereupon a number of names were suggested. On motion, it was resolved "that the person having a plurality of votes cast on the first ballot shall be secretary."

The Rev. Messrs. Bronson and Youcum were appointed tellers.

Rev. W. H. Sampson having received a plurality of the votes cast, was declared secretary for the present year.

Rev. J. C. Dana was then appointed assistant secretary, vice voce.

A number of preachers from other conferences were then introduced to the conference by the bishop.

The secretary read the by-laws of the conference, when they were adopted for the present session.

The conference then resolved to meet at 8 o'clock A. M., and adjourns at 12 M. The afternoon being devoted to the business of the several committees.

The presiding elders were then appointed a committee to nominate the standing committees for the session, who thereupon retired to attend to the duty assigned them.

On motion the bar of the conference was made to extend from the pulpit to the second seat east of the middle windows—the seats beyond this and on either side of the pulpit being reserved for spectators.

Rev. Mr. Prescott then offered in substance the following resolution, viz:—

"That the bishop be requested not to appoint any presiding elder, who may have served four years in succession as such, to the same position again, until he has served at least two years on some circuit, station, or other work of the conference."

Mr. P. supported his resolution in some brief remarks.

The question was then called for, when the bishop suggested the propriety of deferring action on it until the presiding elders (then absent) should be present, which was agreed to.

The conference then took a recess of twenty minutes.

The first business after recess was the reading of the report of the presiding elders, which, after some amendments, was adopted.

Committees were appointed on temperance, slavery, tracts, Sunday schools, the bible, missions, and other matters pertaining to the wants of the conference.

The resolution previously offered by the Rev. Mr. Prescott, was then taken up and passed.

Several communications were then, in their order, presented by the bishop for the consideration of the conference, the most important of which was one from the Cincinnati conference, which contemplates the establishment, by the united action of all the conferences, an institution for the education of people of color.

Some time further was spent in the examination of the characters and passage of the preachers yet on trial, when the conference adjourned until to-morrow.

Janesville, Aug. 30, 1854.

THE WEATHER.—The extreme heat of a few weeks has departed, our nights are mostly cool, and frequently a fire is comfortable. Most of the time there is a cool drying wind, and the earth is as dry as it well can be.

The fall crops are probably past recovery, even if rain should now set in. Oats are light, corn, potatoes and buckwheat will be almost a total failure; and in consequence of the drying up of the pastures, the quantity of butter in this county must fall materially short of that of past years.—Delhi (Delaware Co. N. Y.) Gazette, 23d inst.

PISCATORY.—Mr. Merrill, who resides about three miles west of this village informs us that he went out recently on a fishing excursion upon Lake Mendota. During the afternoon he caught eleven pickerel, the smallest of which weighed ten pounds, and the largest eighteen and a half pounds. We call this pretty good fishing.—Madison Jour.

[Reported for the Janesville Gazette.]
Wisconsin Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

FIRST DAY.

The seventh session of this body was convened in the first M. E. Church of this city, to-day, at 9 o'clock A. M., the venerable Bishop Morris, of Cincinnati, Ohio, presiding.

The conference was opened by the bishop in the use of the usual ceremonies. The preachers were generally present from the various parts of the conference, which embraces the state of Wisconsin, a small portion of Illinois and the territory of Minnesota.

There are about one hundred and fifty preachers in the body, all of whom seem in the enjoyment of their usual health and in fine spirits. Although the greater portion of the preachers present are in the earlier walks of ministerial life, they appear intelligent, devoted, and resigned to the work in which they are engaged. The conference, however, contains some who have long been engaged in the vineyard of the Lord, and who, ere long, must be called to their everlasting reward.

After the opening services, the Rev. Mr. Randall, assistant secretary for the past year, called the names of the preachers, those present answering to their names. The president then called upon the conference to appoint a secretary for the present year; whereupon a number of names were suggested. On motion, it was resolved "that the person having a plurality of votes cast on the first ballot shall be secretary."

The Rev. Messrs. Bronson and Youcum were appointed tellers.

Rev. W. H. Sampson having received a plurality of the votes cast, was declared secretary for the present year.

Rev. J. C. Dana was then appointed assistant secretary, visu voce.

A number of preachers from other conferences were then introduced to the conference by the bishop.

The secretary read the by-laws of the conference, when they were adopted for the present session.

The conference then resolved to meet at 8 o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M. The afternoon being devoted to the business of the several committees.

The presiding elders were then appointed a committee to nominate the standing committees for the session, who thereupon retired to attend to the duty assigned them.

On motion the bar of the conference was made to extend from the pulpit to the second seat east of the middle windows—the seats beyond this and on either side of the pulpit being reserved for spectators.

Rev. Mr. Prescott then offered in substance the following resolution, viz:—

"That the bishop be requested not to appoint any presiding elder, who may have served four years in succession as such, to the same position again, until he has served at least two years on some circuit, station, or other work of the conference."

Mr. P. supported his resolution in some brief remarks.

The question was then called for, when the bishop suggested the propriety of deferring action on it until the presiding elders (then absent) should be present, which was agreed to.

The conference then took a recess of twenty minutes.

The first business after recess was the reading of the report of the presiding elders, which, after some amendments, was adopted.

Committees were appointed on temperance, slavery, tracts, Sunday schools, the bible, missions, and other matters pertaining to the wants of the conference.

The resolution previously offered by the Rev. Mr. Prescott, was then taken up and passed.

Several communications were then, in their order, presented by the bishop for the consideration of the conference, the most important of which was one from the Cincinnati conference, which contemplates the establishment, by the united action of all the conferences, an institution for the education of people of color.

Some time further was spent in the examination of the characters and passage of the preachers yet on trial, when the conference adjourned until to-morrow.

Janesville, Aug. 30, 1864.

THE WEATHER &c.—The extreme heat of a few weeks has departed, our nights are mostly cool, and frequently a fire is comfortable. Most of the time there is a cool drying wind, and the earth is as dry as it will be.

The fall crops are probably past recovery; even if rain should now set in. Oats are light, corn, potatoes and buckwheat will be almost a total failure; and in consequence of the drying up of the pastures, the quantity of butter in this county must fall materially short of that of past years.—Delhi (Delaware Co. N. Y.) Gazette, 23d inst.

Boston, Aug. 29.
 The republican party met in convention, and appointed 150 delegates to the convention.—The delegates were instructed to urge upon the convention the passage of a resolution, calling upon the clergy to lend all the influence in their power to secure the colonization of the newly acquired territories of Kansas and Nebraska by free men.

A specimen of the singular and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom at the national green-house in Washington. The blossoms are very large and yellow, with reddish brown spots, and are moved to and fro with every breath of air, so as to resemble very much the gaily insect from which it derives its name. The plant was brought from the island of St. Thomas, in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

PISCATORY.—Mr. Merrill, who resides about three miles west of this village informs us that he went out recently on a fishing excursion upon Lake Mendota. During the afternoon he caught eleven pickerel, the smallest of which weighed ten pounds, and the largest eighteen and a half pounds. We call this pretty good fishing.—Madison Jour.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home."

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the by Messrs. BAKER & DORR, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by W. M. Dorr, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "The Wisconsin Home" will consist of EIGHT PAGES, making a sheet, of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own, leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The Terms of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, as we may know how to give a wider circulation to the paper. Address post-paid, W. M. DORR, Janesville, Wis.

Papers given the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.

HARRISON'S CELEBRATED PERFUMERY, WHICH HAS GAINED for itself a reputation, rivaled by none, even of foreign or domestic manufacture, can now be procured at home at Harrison's card prices, at wholesale or retail.

The following is a slight enumeration, for Handkerchief and Toilet perfumery.

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.
 Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud trumpet of our land and our sea."
WHEELLOCK'S triumph, and near shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that "Man wants but little here below," and to supply those wants

WHEELLOCK announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

BANK SUSPENDED.—A telegraphic despatch from Louisville, Ky., dated 26th ult., says that the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Memphis Tenn., had suspended payment.

The Fond du Lac Herald expresses itself in opposition to the proposed amendment of the constitution so as to create biennial sessions of the legislature. Every paper in the state which has yet spoken, takes the same ground.—Mad. Argus.

The Argus is mistaken. Several papers which expressed their opinion last spring when the law was passed, declared themselves in favor of the change. The only defect we can see in the proposed amendment is, that special sessions may be called. Avoid this, by a strict prohibition, and we venture that annual sessions will find as little favor with the people as the Nebraska bill. The state has already had legislation enough of a certain character for half a dozen generations, and the prospect of any improvement hereafter is too remote to warrant the experiment of a continuance of the present system.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC CAUCUS.—The democratic caucus in the 3d ward to appoint delegates to the senatorial and assembly conventions which are to be held at the Mineral Point congressional convention, was attended by three persons. Of these two were residents of the ward, and the third a non-resident. The two residents were appointed officers, and the non-resident made and seconded the motions. With commendable impartiality, the two officers divided the delegates equally between them, one taking the senatorial and the other the assembly.

SENATORIAL.—Wm. C. Rives has authorized the editor of the Charlotteville Advocate to say that he has retired from all party and political contests. He wishes to forget the name of whig, and have it forgotten.

This paragraph is meeting a good deal of favor in the local Nebraska press. It seems to us, however, that the boon of oblivion should be more healthily prayed for by the hitherto dominant "democratic" than the oft-defeated whig party. The latter goes from the field, if it does go, with no stain upon its banner, while its once victorious opponent is doomed to a hopeless rout, disgraced within itself and deserted by its best men, leaving the memory only of a broken faith and perverted use of power.

A LITTLE WARM.—Day before yesterday the thermometer reached 100 in the shade, and stood as high as 99 for five or six consecutive hours. In the evening a cool wind came up and made a good promise of rain. The prospect continued into yesterday morning, but ultimately failed to realize the expectation induced, and the sun in the course of the day got up nearly to its old heat.

A PROTECTIVE SOIL.—Captain Maloon has just moved the third heavy crop of clover from a small piece of ground adjoining his dwelling in this city. He will have still another crop, making four in one season. We do not believe this is to be beaten any where.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE.—A large number of our papers having been ordered by the Methodist conference now in session, we republish the proceedings of the first day for the use of its members.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of "the young ladies' seminary."

The Washington Star says that the administration fully approves Commander Hollins' official account of the bombardment of Greytown, and will shield him against all such ridiculous suits as that brought against him in New York.

THE BAPTIST COLLEGE.—There was considerable strife as to the location of this institution, various towns bidding high for it. At Columbus 50 acres of land and the money and labor to build a spacious brick edifice, were offered, but Beaver Dam took the prize.

AN EARLY DEATH.—"Young America," senator Douglas' paper in Chicago, has "kicked the bucket." A new "organ" to be called the "Chicago Times" is to take its place, and sing the same tune of its predecessor. In this case, what was the necessity for the youngster to lay down so quietly to his last repose?

David Taylor, the independent candidate for congress in this district, has been speaking in Grant county. From an allusion we find to him elsewhere we infer that he is anti-Nebraska. His card declaring himself a candidate did not arouse his position on that question.

THE ACCIDENT AT FULTON.—The Wisconsin gives the following particulars of the accident at the Fulton depot. The woman had in her arms a little boy who was slightly injured. The little fellow was too much frightened by the calamity and the strangers who surrounded him to tell his name. He was cared for. An unclaimed trunk marked "Maria Moore, Ills." was on the morning's train.

THE CHOLERA.—This frightful disease appears to be deserting our cities and towns, as we have no more of its ravages to any extent in places which have been most affected by it. Perhaps in no season that it has visited us has it been more fatal, and taken away those whose loss both in a business and social view could be more deplored.

But now we hope its death-crawlings have been satisfied, and if it has not entirely disappeared from the country it has left us for the season. It has foiled every attempt of knowledge to stay its progress—and although now, as it were, has proved a permanent disease among us, yet there is none of our wise men who could agree upon its treatment—or render aid to the many millions that have been swept into oblivion by its dark waters.—Review Advocate.

[Reported for the Janesville Gazette.]
WISCONSIN ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, Aug. 31st.

Conference convened at 8 o'clock, bishop Morris in the chair. The session was opened by reading the scriptures, singing and prayer, by J. S. Prescott.

Rev. Mr. Poe, assistant agent of the Western Book Concern, at Cincinnati, presented the subject of his mission to the conference.

The following resolutions were then passed:
Resolved, That E. C. Jones be appointed a reporter for the papers published in this place.
Resolved, That we dispense with calling the roll during the remainder of the conference.

Conference then resumed the consideration of the 2d question on the general minutes. Elizabeth Page, John Hooper, John Ferry, Christopher C. Mason, Levi W. M. Schooler, Aaron Griswold and Riley R. Hamilton were continued on trial. John M. Shultz was discontinued at his own request.

The 4th question on the general minutes was then taken up. The characters of John L. Dyer, Thos. C. Golden, David O. Jones, Robert Cobban, Thos. O. Wilson, Richard Dudgeon, Henry Wood, Rowland Moffatt, Jas. T. Prior, Nicholas Mayne, and George Chester, were passed.

Rev. Mr. Foot, being introduced as a delegate from the general association of the Congregational Church, was invited to address the conference.

He stated that he had come to present the christian salutations and sympathies of his church to the Wisconsin conference; that both churches were engaged in the same great work, laboring in the same vineyard, preaching the same gospel, and having in view the same great object—that of evangelizing the world; and that it was very desirable that both bodies should act in harmony as far as practicable.

Bishop Morris responded to this address with some very appropriate and happy remarks.

Rev. Mr. Elliott, agent of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the conference.

The 5th question of the general minutes was then taken up. Samuel Watts, Wm. H. Thomson, R. Blackburne, Joseph C. Dana, Samuel L. Leonard, J. M. S. Maxson, James Lawson, Obad E. Hall, James H. Scott, and Wm. Shroff were elected to elders orders. The characters of Job B. Mills, Hiram Hersey, Wm. Owens, Edwin S. Dunce, and R. S. Hayward, were passed.

During the examination of character animated discussions frequently sprung up, different opinions were expressed, and various courses of policy were proposed; but the good feeling, christian courtesy, and brotherly love which prevailed, gave conclusive evidence that Methodist ministers may differ widely in their views with regard to many things, without permitting any alienation of feeling or discord among themselves.

On motion it was

Resolved, That Jabez Brooks be an auditing committee to settle with the preachers for the minutes.

The hour for adjournment having arrived, the session was closed with prayer by James H. Scott.

ELI C. JONES, Conf. Reporter.

JANESVILLE Aug. 31, 1884.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:

GENTS:—I suppose the report that "a determination has been arrived by individuals connected with the Milwaukee and Mississippi road to drive business from Janesville," to most men, seems to carry in its face its own refutation.

The silly story, however, as you suggest, may have "obtained credence with some." If so, and there are men who believe that such is the policy of the M. & M. Co., I will pay any enterprising individual who will substantiate the report, by such evidence as would be good in a court of justice, one hundred dollars for his services and expenses in the undertaking.

Yours, etc. J. R. PEASE.

AN ESCAPE.—As the steamboat Mayflower was nearing her dock, yesterday afternoon, the barber, a negro man, named Hoover, saw standing upon the dock, in company with several police officers, a person whom he recognized as his former master, from whose custody Hoover escaped many years since. Suspecting that he was in danger if he remained there, Hoover ran forward, and as the bow of the Mayflower approached the stern of the Plymouth Rock, he jumped upon the deck of the latter vessel, then dropped down into a small boat lying alongside, worked her round, under the dock, crawled along until he reached the ferry boat International, which runs to Fort Br., and was just ready for leaving, ascending quickly to her deck and, in a few moments, was in Canadian waters and safe.

Hoover is a man of some thirty years of age, has resided in Buffalo for many years, and has a family here. It is remarkable that he should recognize his master, from whom he ran away when only ten years old.—Buffalo Democrat.

A NEW AMERICAN DOLLAR.—The editor of the Washington Star says that he saw, on Thursday morning, a new dollar coin which had been sent to the secretary of the treasury from the Philadelphia mint for his sanction. "In size it is about that of a five cent piece; on one side it has an Indian head with a crown of feathers, such as one sees at times on tobacco boxes." The head is surrounded by the words "United States of America." On the reverse side, there is an open wreath composed of the principal staple agricultural productions of the country—wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and rice. This wreath surrounds the words "1 dollar, 1864." In appearance, on this side especially, it precisely resembles the three dollar coin. On the whole it is a beautiful thing, and its great diameter will be likely to make it much more acceptable than the dollar coin now in circulation, which has proved very inconvenient, indeed, on account of its too small diameter."

FALLING OF A BUILDING.—Two large granite buildings on Broad street, in Boston, fell one day last week with a tremendous crash, owing to the imperfect condition of the foundations. Three persons are known to have been killed by the fall, and it is feared others were fatally injured. The loss is $120,000.

R. R. V. U. RAILROAD.—At a meeting of the directors of this company held at their office in New York a few days since, it was determined to lease to Messrs. Bradley & Co., (the contractors for the construction) that portion of the road already completed from this city to Watertown. By the terms of this lease Messrs. B. & Co. are required to keep the track in good running order, and to make such additions to the motive power and rolling stock as are necessary to secure regularity and despatch in the daily running of trains over the road. This lease terminates whenever the track is laid to Watertown. At this meeting two new directors were also appointed to fill vacancies: Messrs. Charles Butler of New York, and J. Hickok, of Burlington, Vt., both of them men of wealth, who have had much experience in railroading. A committee was also appointed to confer with the bond-holders as to the policy of converting their bonds into stock, and we have strong hopes that this proposition will be adopted by those who are interested. Should they do so it would place the affairs of the company in such a position that by a united and vigorous effort, and a liberal subscription to stock on the part of the people living on the line of the road, the work could be resumed and prosecuted to an early and successful completion to Chicago. At the same meeting a call of ten per cent was made on the stock, and a meeting of stockholders called at Janesville on the 10th day of October next. We hope that next year will at least see us connected with the lake shore by railroad, either via Horicon or Watertown.—Fond du Lac Union.

SARATOGA AND AUBURN.—We have seen no correct account of the closing proceedings of the anti-Nebraska convention at Saratoga; and, as some importance is attached to them, we will endeavor from memory to supply the deficiency.

The committee on resolutions, after having agreed upon those forming the platform submitted to and adopted by the convention, considered the subject of giving effect to those resolutions by nominations and votes and finally agreed upon the following:

Resolved, That when this convention adjourns it adjourn to meet again in Auburn at 10 o'clock A. M. of Tuesday, Sep. 16, charged with the duty of presenting candidates for state officers, to be supported at the ensuing election, who shall represent and uphold the principles embodied in these resolutions;—and that if there shall then be candidates already in nomination, fully, openly, and satisfactorily committed to these principles, then it is our judgment that such candidates should be adopted by said convention at Auburn; but if not, then independent candidates should be nominated.

Mr. Greeley, in reporting the platform and the above, stated that they were all that had been formally adopted by the committee; but there was another which had been in substance agreed to, though overlooked in the inevitable haste of preparation to meet the convention on its re-assembling at 3 P. M. That resolution, which he could now only offer as a delegate, having no opportunity to consult his colleagues, was as follows:

Resolved, That to said convention at Auburn, each assembly district not represented in this body, be invited to send delegates; and in the divisions of said convention a majority of the delegates present from any assembly district be authorized to cast the vote of said district.

The former of these resolutions having provoked much opposition, and the hour growing late, Mr. Raymond, acting for the majority of the committee, as a peace-offering withdrew the latter half of it—(all that relates to candidates already in nomination)—and asked a vote on the remainder, which was carried by an overwhelming majority; and then Mr. Raymond asked a vote on the last resolution, as above, which was likewise carried. Thereupon the convention adjourned without day. Such are the essential but hitherto misstated facts.—N. Y. Tribune.

EXCITING SCENE IN COURT.—On Monday evening an amusing, though rather pointed passage at arms took place between Recorder Summers and Counselor Field, when the case of the fair but frail Jennie Gleason was on the tapis , and when the case was closed, the counselor protested against the act as an outrage on public justice. Having slept over the matter, the recorder took his seat on the following morning, (yesterday) and the counselor took spiritual consolation. Eventually the counselor took into his head to go before the recorder, and when there, he asked permission to make a motion. Leave being granted, he launched into a running commentary on what he was pleased to consider the recorder's illegal act of the previous evening, whereupon the recorder told him to "hold out." And so the counselor did hold out, in a sense different, however, from that intended by the recorder. This brought the blood to the recorder's face, and the ire of his bile, and bringing his knuckles down hard on the desk before him, he ordered the counselor to be committed to prison for twenty-four hours for contempts of court!

The recorder here observed that since the present recorder had been presiding the court had generally been considered a legitimate object of contempt; and then, shaking his finger at the recorder, he said, "while clothed in your little brief authority, you may play off this fashion, your fantastic tricks, but the time will come when I shall meet you on equal terms, and then I shall have a revenge, for I consider you to be nothing but a—d—d jackass."

At this juncture the recorder abruptly adjourned the court, and springing from his magnificent tripod, appeared determined to visit the portly counselor with a touch of the lex talionis.

The counselor observing the rapid movement, said, "I'm ready for you, but if you dare to lay a hand on me I'll kill you as dead as a—d—d" drawing at the same time, from his vest, as pretty a "bull dog" as ever drove a piece of cold lead through a fellow's bread-basket.

The police here interposed; the recorder returned to his seat, and the counselor was conveyed to prison to purge himself of his contempt.—N. O. True Delta 16th.

COL. BENTON BARE LEGGED.—John Wentworth in one of his recent Washington letters, develops the following curious anecdote of Col. Benton:

"When the House adjourned on Monday morning sine die there were about a dozen present. Col. Benton and myself were the only ones from the west. The Colonel had prepared himself for a hot morning, by leaving vest, cravat and stockings at home. He wore light and low slippers, which showed nature's stockings to great advantage. When asked where he got his stockings, he said he got them of his mother, seventy odd years ago, and there never had been a hole in them."

By a private letter from Europe we learn that Prince John Van Buren was at Lexington Spa, England, for the benefit of the waters, accompanied by Sir Benjamin Brodie, the eminent physician. The prince, we understand, is in delicate health, and will soon return home, being unable to pursue his European tour, as at first contemplated.—Herald.

From the New York Evening Post.
Niagara Falls—Doesticks on a Bender.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have been to Niagara, you know—Niagara falls—a big rocks, water, foam, Tablerock, Indian curiosities, squaws, moccasins, stuffed snakes, rapids, wolves, Clifton House, Suspension bridge, place where the water runs swift, the ladies faint, scream and get the point washed off their faces; where the aristocratic Indian ladies sit on the dirt and make little bags; where all the inhabitants swindle strangers; where the cars go in a hurry, the waiters are impudent and all the small boys swear.

When I came in sight of the Suspension bridge, I was vividly impressed with the idea that it was some bridge, in fact a considerable curiosity, and a considerable bridge—took a glass of beer and walked to the falls—another glass of beer and walked under the falls; wanted another glass of beer, but couldn't get it; walked away from the falls, wet through, mad; triumphant, victorious, humbug!—humbug! sir, all humbug! except the dabbiness of everything, which is most certainly, and the cupid of everybody, which is a diabolical fact, and the Indians and niggers everywhere, which is a satanic truth.

Another glass of beer—twas forthcoming immediately—also, another, all of which I drank. I then proceeded to drink a glass of beer, went over to the states, where I procured a glass of beer—went up stairs, for which I paid a sixpence, over to Court Island, for which I disturbed twenty-five cents, hired a guide, to whom I paid half a dollar—went up on the tower for a quarter of a dollar and looked at the falls—didn't feel sublime, and tried to but couldn't, took some beer, and tried again but failed—drank a glass of beer and began to feel better—thought the waters were sent for and were on a journey to the—thought the place below was one sea of beer—was going to jump down and get some, guide held me; sent him over to the hotel to get a glass of beer, while I tried to write some poetry; result as follows:

O thou (spray in one eye) awful (small) master-piece in right shoe) sublime (both feet wet) masterpiece of (jimmy, what a lie), the Almighty. Terrible and majestic art thou in thy tremendous might—awful (ouful) to behold, (clump in my right shoulder), gigantic, huge and nice. Oh, thou that tumbled down and riseth up again in misty majesty to Heaven—thou glorious parent of a thousand rainbows—what a huge, grand, awful, terrible tremendous, infinite odd swindling humbug you are: what are you doing there, you rapids you—you know you're rumbled over the rocks, and can't get up again to save your puny existence; you make a great fuss, don't you?

Man came back with the beer, drank it to the last drop and wished there had been a gallon more—walked out on a rock to the fall, woman on shore very much frightened—told her not to get excited if I fell over, as I would step right up again—it would not be much of a fall anyhow—got a glass of beer of a man, another of a woman, another of two small boys with a pail—fifteen minutes elapsed when I purchased some of an Indian woman and imbibed it through a straw; it wasn't good—had to get a glass of beer to take the taste out of my mouth; legs began to tangle up, effect of the spray in my eyes—got hungry and wanted something to eat—went into an eating house, called for a plate of beans when the plate brought the waiter in his hand I took it, hung up my beef and beans on a nail, eat my bait, paid dollar to nigger, and sided out on the step walk; bought a boy of a glass of dog with a small beer and a neck on his tail, with a collar with a spot on the end; got some water in a tin cup drank the cup and placed the soda on the counter, and paid for the money full of pocket—very bad headache; rubbed it against the lamp post and then stumbled along; station house came along and said if I didn't go straight he'd take me to the watchman—tried to oblige the station house, very civil station house, very—met a baby with an Irish woman and a wheelbarrow in it, couldn't get out of the way, she wouldn't walk on the side walk, but insisted on going on both sides of the street at once; tried to walk between her; consequence collision, awful—knocked out all pieces, baby loose, court house handy took me to the constable, jury sat on me, and the jail said the magistrate must take me to the constable; objected; the dungeon put me into the darkest constable in the city; got out, and here I am, prepared to stick to my original opinion—Niagara unus humbug! non ecclesia, non indignus admirator.

Yours unquestionably,

Q. R. PHYLANDER DOESTICKS, P. B.

The Buffalo Democrat relates the following:—"We saw a German youth perform a feat the other day with a street-washing hose, which, we venture a wager, he will not repeat. He was wetting down the walk, and for some purpose, desired to stop the stream for a moment, but there being no pipe on the hose, he attempted to hold it with his teeth! He succeeded pretty well for a short time, but in an unlucky fit of absent-mindedness, he released his hold, and run over in a second; his face assumed a purple tinge, his eyes projected, and his hands waved about insanely. Instead of letting go of the tube, he started to run, and it was only when he had stretched the hose to its length that he let it fall from his mouth; then he did not stop running. It was the most ludicrous result of stupidity we ever witnessed."

A tipsy man went into a Sunday school and for a few moments listened very attentively to the questions propounded to the scholars, but being anxious to show his knowledge of "scripture" and doctrine, he stood up leaning on the front of the pew with both hands: "Parson B—," said he, "ask me some of them hard ques-shuns." "Uncle John," said the parson with a solemn face and in a drawing tone, "don't you know you are in the bonds of sin, and the depths of iniquity?" "Yes! and in the gall of bitterness too—Ask me another ques-shun."

Mr. Henry Ackman, of Stonehouse Plains, was fatally injured on Tuesday, while harrowing in a field. It appears that the horses stepped into a bee's nest, when being stung by the bees, they became unmanageable, and dragged Mr. A. after them for some distance, he being unable to disengage his hands from the reins. The harrow tore out his entrails, and otherwise horribly mutilated him. He died from his injuries on Friday, the 11th instant.

HARD TIMES FOR MERCHANTS IN CALIFORNIA.—The San Francisco Shipping List thinks that a great portion of the goods now crumming that market will rot in store. Every thing is held too high; and holders of real estate prefer not to rent at all, rather than to lower their demand. A great number of buildings are now vacant, in consequence of the high prices asked for them. In one section in which there are 1025 buildings, 347 were found to be unoccupied, and yet scarcely a hole large enough for an apple stand could be rented for less than $100 per month.

The Albany Argus closes an article on the administration as follows:—"In spite of lamentations" at Washington and elsewhere—perfidy and venality in high and low places, is as surely destined to receive its reward, as the election in '56, will present the avenging opportunity. Mark the prediction!

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Oregon Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dol-position, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and need the only persons through whom they can be had.

 They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®

BANK SUSPENDED.—A telegraphic despatch from Louisville, Ky., dated 29th ult., says that the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Memphis, Tenn., had suspended payment.

The Fond du Lac Herald expresses itself in opposition to the proposed amendment of the constitution so as to create biennial sessions of the legislature. Every paper in the state which has yet spoken, takes the same ground.—Mad. Argus.

The Argus is mistaken. Several papers which expressed their opinion last spring when the law was passed, declared themselves in favor of the change. The only defect we can see in the proposed amendment is, that special sessions may be called. Avoid this, by a strict prohibition, and we venture that annual sessions will find as little favor with the people as the Nebraska bill. The state has already had legislation enough of a certain character for half a dozen generations, and the prospect of any improvement hereafter is too remote to warrant the experiment of a continuance of the present system.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC CAUCUS.—The democratic caucus in the 3d ward to appoint delegates to the senatorial and assembly conventions which are to send delegates to the Mineral Point congressional convention, was attended by three persons. Of these two were residents of the ward, and the third a non-resident. The two residents were appointed officers, and the non-resident made and seconded the motions. With commendable impartiality, the two officers divided the delegates equally between them, one taking the senatorial and the other the assembly.

Sensitiveness.—Wm. O. Rives has authorized the editor of the Chalottesville Advocate to say that he has retired from all party and political contests. He wishes to forget the name of whig, and have it forgotten.

This paragraph is meeting a good deal of favor in the locofoco Nebraska press. It seems to us, however, that the boon of oblivion should be more healthily prayed for by the hitherto dominant "democratic" than the oft-defeated whig party. The latter goes from the field, if it does go, with no stain upon its banner, while its once victorious opponent is doomed to a hopeless rout, disgraced within itself and deserted by its best men, leaving the memory only of a broken faith and perverted use of power.

A LITTLE WARM.—Day before yesterday the thermometer reached 100 in the shade, and stood as high as 99 for five or six consecutive hours. In the evening a cool wind came up and made a good promise of rain. The prospect continued into yesterday morning, but ultimately failed to realize the expectation induced, and the sun in the course of the day got up nearly to its old heat.

A PRODUCTIVE SOIL.—Captain Malcom has just mowed the third heavy crop of clover from a small piece of ground adjoining his dwelling in this city. He will have still another crop, making four in one season. We do not believe this is to be beaten any where.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE.—A large number of our papers having been ordered by the Methodist conference now in session, we republish the proceedings of the first day for the use of its members.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of "the young ladies' seminary."

The Washington Star says that the administration fully approves Commander Hoffman's official account of the bombardment of Greytown, and will shield him against all such ridiculous suits as that brought against him in New York.

THE BAPTIST COLLEGE.—There was considerable strife as to the location of this institution, various towns bidding high for it. At Columbus 60 acres of land and the money and labor to build a spacious brick edifice, were offered, but Beaver Dam took the prize.

AN EARLY DEATH.—"Young America," senator Douglas's paper in Chicago, has "kicked the bucket." A new "organ," to be called the "Chicago Times" is to take its place, and sing the same tune of its predecessor. In this case, what was the necessity for the youngster to lay down so quietly to his last repose?

David Taylor, the independent candidate for congress in this district, has been speaking in Grant county. From an allusion we find to him elsewhere we infer that he is anti-Nebraska. His card declaring himself a candidate did not avoid his position on that question.

THE ACCIDENT AT FULTON.—The Wisconsin gives the following particulars of the accident at the Fulton depot. The woman had in her arms a little boy who was slightly injured. The little fellow was too much frightened by the calamity and the strangers who surrounded him to tell his name. He was cared for. An unexplained trunk marked "Maria Moore, Ills." was on the morning's train.

THE CHOLERA.—This frightful disease appears to be deserting our cities and towns, as we hear no more of its ravages to any extent in places which have been most afflicted by it. Perhaps in no season that it has visited us has it been more fatal, and taken away those whose loss both in a business and social view could be more deplored.

But now we hope its death-cravings have been satisfied, and if it has not entirely disappeared from the country it has left us for the season. It has foiled every attempt of knowledge to stay its progress—and although now, as it were, has proved a permanent disease among us, yet there is none of our wise men who could agree upon its treatment—or render aid to the many millions that have been swept into oblivion by its dark waters.—Racine Advocate.

Conference convened at 8 o'clock, bishop Morris in the chair. The session was opened by reading the scriptures, singing and prayer, by J. S. Prescott.

Rev. Mr. Poe, assistant agent of the Western Book Concern, at Cincinnati, presented the subject of his mission to the conference.

The following resolutions were then passed: Resolved, That E. C. Jones be appointed a reporter for the papers published in this place.

Resolved, That we dispense, with calling the roll during the remainder of the conference.

Conference then resumed the consideration of the 2d question on the general minutes. Eliza Page, John Hooper, John Ferry, Christopher C. Mason, Levi W. M'Schooler, Aaron Griswold and Riley R. Hamilton were continued on trial. John M. Shultz was discontinued at his own request.

The 4th question on the general minutes was then taken up. The characters of John L. Dyer, Thos. C. Golden, David O. Jones, Robert Cobban, Thos. Orbison, Richard Dudgeon, Henry Wood, Rowland Moffatt, Jas. T. Prior, Nicholas Mayne, and George Chester, were passed.

Rev. Mr. Foot, being introduced as a delegate from the general association of the Congregational Church, was invited to address the conference.

He stated that he had come to present the christian salutations and sympathies of his church to the Wisconsin conference; that both churches were engaged in the same great work, laboring in the same vineyard, preaching the same gospel, and having in view the same great object—that of evangelizing the world; and that it was very desirable that both bodies should act in harmony as far as practicable.

Bishop Morris responded to this address with some very appropriate and happy remarks.

Rev. Mr. Elliott, agent of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the conference.

The 5th question of the general minutes was then taken up. Samuel Watts, Wm. H. Thompson, R. Blackburn, Joseph C. Dana, Samuel L. Leonard, J. M. S. Maxson, James Lawson, Obed E. Hall, James H. Scott, and Wm. Shroff were elected to elders orders. The characters of Job B. Mills, Hiram Hersey, Wm. Owens, Edwin S. Bunce, and R. S. Hayward, were passed.

During the examination of character animated discussions frequently sprung up, different opinions were expressed, and various courses of policy were proposed; but the good feeling, christian courtesy, and brotherly love which prevailed, gave conclusive evidence that Methodist ministers may differ widely in their views with regard to many things, without permitting any alienation of feeling or discord among themselves.

On motion it was Resolved, That Jabez Brooks be an auditing committee to settle with the preachers for the minutes.

The hour for adjournment having arrived, the session was closed with prayer by James H. Scott.

ELI C. JONES, Conf. Reporter.

JANEVILLE Aug. 31, 1854.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:—

GENTS.—I suppose the report that "a determination has been avowed by individuals connected with the Milwaukee and Mississippi road to drive business from Janesville," to most men, seems to carry in its face its own refutation.

The silly story, however, as you suggest, may have "obtained credence with some." If so, and there are men who believe that such is the policy of the M. & M. Co., I will pay any enterprising individual who will substantiate the report, by such evidence as would be good in a court of justice, one hundred dollars for his services and expenses in the undertaking.

Yours, etc. J. J. R. PEASE.

AN ESCAPE.—As the steamboat Mayflower was leaving her dock, yesterday afternoon, the barber, a negro man, named Hoover, saw standing upon the dock, in company with several police officers, a person whom he recognized as his former master, from whose custody Hoover had escaped many years since. Suspecting that he was in danger if he remained there, Hoover ran forward, and as the bow of the Mayflower approached the stern of the Plymouth Rock, he jumped upon the deck of the latter vessel, then dropped down into a small boat lying alongside, worked her round, under the dock, crawled along until he reached the ferry boat International, which runs to Fort Era, and was just ready for leaving, ascended quietly to her deck and, in a few moments, was in Canadian waters and safe. Hoover is a man of some thirty years of age, has resided in Buffalo for many years, and has a family here. It is remarkable that he should recognize his master, from whom he ran away when only ten years old.—Buffalo Democracy.

A NEW AMERICAN DOLLAR.—The editor of the Washington Star says that he saw, on Thursday morning, a new dollar coin which had been sent to the secretary of the treasury from the Philadelphia mint for his sanction. "In size it is about that of a five cent piece; on one side it has an Indian head with a crown of feathers, such as one sees at times on tobacco boxes." The head is surrounded by the words "United States of America." On the reverse side, there is an open wreath composed of the principal staple agricultural productions of the country—wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and rice. The wreath surrounds the words "1 dollar, 1854." In appearance, on this side especially, it precisely resembles the three dollar coin. On the whole it is a beautiful thing, and its great diameter will be likely to make it much more acceptable than the dollar coin now in circulation, which has proved very inconvenient indeed, on account of its too small diameter.

FALLING OF A BUILDING.—Two large granite buildings on Broad street, in Boston, fell one day last week with a tremendous crash; owing to the imperfect condition of the foundations. Three persons are known to have been killed by the fall, and it is feared others were fatally injured. The loss is $120,000.

At a meeting of the directors of this company held at their office in New York a few days since, it was determined to lease to Messrs. Bradley & Co., (the contractors for the construction) that portion of the road already completed from this city to Wau-

When I came in sight of the Suspension bridge, I was vividly impressed with the idea that it was some bridge, in fact a considerable curiosity, and a considerable bridge—took a glass of beer and walked to the falls—another glass of beer and walked under the falls; wanted another glass of beer, but couldn't get it; walked away from the falls, wet through, mad; triumphant, victorious, humbug!—humbug! sir, all humbug! except the dabbiness of everything, which is most certainly, and the cupidty of everybody, which is a diabolical fact, and the Indians and niggers everywhere, which is a satanic truth.

Another glass of beer—twas forthcoming—immediately—also, another, all of which I drank. I then proceeded to drink a glass of beer, went over to the states, where I procured a glass of beer—went up stairs, for which I paid a shilling, over to Goat Island, for which I disbursed twenty-five cents, hired a guide, to whom I paid half a dollar—sneezed four times, at nine cents a sneeze—went up on the tower for a quarter of a dollar and looked at the falls—didn't feel sublime, and tried to but couldn't, took some beer, and tried again but failed—drank a glass of beer and began to feel better—thought the waters were sent for and were on a journey to the—, thought the place below was one sea of beer—was going to jump down and get some, guide held me; sent him over to the hotel to get a glass of beer, while I tried to write some poetry; result as follows:

O thou (spray in one eye) awful (small) master in right shoe) sublime (both feet wet) masterpiece of (jimmymy) what a lie, the Almighty. Terrible and majestic art thou in thy tremendous night—awful (of) to behold, (clasp in my right shoulder) gigantic, huge and nice. Oh, thou that tumbledst down and riseth up again in misty majesty to Heaven—thou glorious parent of a thousand rainbows—what a huge, grand, awful, terrible, tremendous, infinite old swindling humbug you are; what are you doing there, you rapids—you know you're tumbled over the rocks, and can't get up again to save your puny existence; you make a great fuss, don't you?

Man came back with the beer, drank it to the last drop and wished there had been a gallon more—walked out on a rock to the fall, woman on shore very much frightened—told her not to get excited if I fell over, as I would step right up again—it would not be much of a fall anyhow—got a glass of beer of a man, another of a woman, another of two small boys with a pail—fifteen minutes elapsed when I purchased some of an Indian woman and inhaled it through a straw; it wasn't good—had to get a glass of beer to take the taste out of my mouth; legs began to tingle up, effect of the spray in my eyes—got hungry and wanted something to eat—went into an eating house, called for a plate of beans when the plate brought the waiter in his hand I took it, hung up my beef and beans on a nail, eat my hat, paid dollar to nigger, and sidled out on the step walk; bought a boy of a glass of dog with a small beer and a neck on his tail, with a collar with a spot on the end; got some water in a tin cup drank the cup and placed the soda on the counter, and paid for the money full of pocket—very bad headache; rubbed it against the lamp post and then stumbled along; station house came along and said if I didn't go straight he'd take me to the watchman—tried to oblige the station house, very civil station house, very—met a baby with an Irishwoman and a wheelbarrow in it, couldn't get out of the way, she wouldn't walk on the side walk, but insisted on going on both sides of the street at once; tried to walk between her; consequence collision, awful—knocked out the wheelbarrow's nose, broke the Irishwoman all to pieces, baby loose, court house handy took me to the constable, jury sat on me, and the jail said the magistrate must take me to the constable; objected; the dungeon put me into the darkest constable in the city; got out, and here I am, prepared to stick to my original opinion—Niagara uno humbug! non exelus, non indignus admiratulo.

The Buffalo Democrat relates the following:—"We saw a German youth perform a feat the other day with a street-washing hose, which, we venture a wager, he will never repeat. He was wetting down the walk, and for some purpose, desired to stop the stream for a moment, but there being no pipe on the hose, he attempted to hold it with his teeth! He succeeded pretty well for a short time, but in an unlucky fit of absent-mindedness, he released his hold, and there ensued a scene! He seemed to fill up and run over in a second; his face assumed a purple tinge, his eyes projected, and his hands waved about aimlessly. Instead of letting go of the tube, he started to run, and it was only when he had stretched the hose to its length that he let it fall from his mouth; and then he did not stop running. It was the most ludicrous result of stupidity we ever witnessed."

A tipsy man went into a Sunday school and for a few moments listened very attentively to the questions propounded to the scholars, but being anxious to show his knowledge of "scripture" and doctrine, he stood up leaning on the front of the pew with both hands: "Parson B," said he, "ask me some of them hard ques-shuns."

"Uncle John," said the parson with a solemn face and in a drawing tone, "don't you know you are in the bonds of sin, and the depths of iniquity?"

"Yes'ir, and in the gall of bitterness too—Ask me another ques-shun."

Mr. Henry Ackman, of Stonehouse Plains, was fatally injured on Tuesday, while harrowing in a field. It appears that the horses stepped into a bee's nest, when being stung by the bees, they became unmanageable, and dragged Mr. A. after them for some distance, he being unable to disengage his hands from the reins. The harrow tore out his entrails, and otherwise horribly mutilated him. He died from his injuries on Friday, the 11th instant.

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

BOOTS AND SHOES

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have before brought to Janesville, and what is better, all the rest can be sold them at lower prices than we have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

In particular, I have no hesitation in saying, none

all made to order and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding all times, that if they do not come up to the warrantance they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMAN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty five per cent. than can be found at any of the shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the DODGE AND SHOT OF THE WEST STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More, and know more about the trade, than the whole lot of petty dealers put together. And I know at that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one who is engaged in Janesville, by their Boots and Shot of war for the more I sell the smaller profit I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to our Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I have now engaged in the Manufacture of Boots, and I have probably an selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent. more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices, and at the same time make up my profit.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of Mr. DECKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the country; and if we don't get up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation; and I pledge you my word that this is no small feat.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $5,000 worth of the best brands of Eastern Saddle and Upper Leathers, and also very large quantities of English and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kinds of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TIPS, ORNAMENTALS, etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can sell an object for you to buy of me. At least I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the peddlers.

TO THE LADIES.

I would say that I am under very great obligation to the partiality you have shown in allowing me to present your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you well be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of GAOXS, when I shall have closed up my shoe selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order to suit the work you wish, at low rates.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. DINGOCH, Proprietor,
T. H. DICKINGHAM, Foreman.

[Reported for the Janesville Gazette.]
Wisconsin Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

FIRST DAY.

The seventh session of this body was convened in the first M. E. Church of this city, to-day, at 9 o'clock A. M., the venerable Bishop Morris, of Cincinnati, Ohio, presiding.

The conference was opened by the bishop in the use of the usual ceremonies. The preachers were generally present from the various parts of the conference, which embraces the state of Wisconsin, a small portion of Illinois and the territory of Minnesota.

There are about one hundred and fifty preachers in the body, all of whom seem in the enjoyment of their usual health and in fine spirits. Although the greater portion of the preachers present are in the earlier walks of ministerial life, they appear intelligent, devotional, and resigned to the work in which they are engaged. The conference, however, contains some who have long been engaged in the vineyard of the Lord, and who, ere long, must be called to their everlasting reward.

After the opening services, the Rev. Mr. Randall, assistant secretary for the past year, called the names of the preachers, those present answering to their names. The president then called upon the conference to appoint a secretary for the present year; whereupon a number of names were suggested. On motion, it was resolved "that the person having a plurality of votes cast on the first ballot shall be secretary."

The Rev. Messrs. Bronson and Youcum were appointed tellers.

Rev. W. H. Sampson having received a plurality of the votes cast, was declared secretary for the present year.

Rev. J. C. Dana was then appointed assistant secretary, visu voce.

A number of preachers from other conferences were then introduced to the conference by the bishop.

The secretary read the by-laws of the conference, when they were adopted for the present session.

The conference then resolved to meet at 8 o'clock A. M., and adjourns at 12 M. The afternoon being devoted to the business of the several committees.

The presiding elders were then appointed a committee to nominate the standing committees for the session, who thereupon retired to attend to the duty assigned them.

On motion the bar of the conference was made to extend from the pulpit to the second seat east of the middle windows—the seats beyond this and on either side of the pulpit being reserved for spectators.

Rev. Mr. Prescott then offered in substance the following resolution, viz:—

"That the bishop be requested not to appoint any presiding elder, who may have served four years in succession as such, to the same position again, until he has served at least two years on some circuit, station, or other work of the conference."

Mr. P.—supported his resolution in some brief remarks.

The question was then called for, when the bishop suggested the propriety of deferring action on it until the presiding elders (then absent) should be present, which was agreed to.

The conference then took a recess of twenty minutes.

The first business after recess was the reading of the report of the presiding elders, which, after some amendments, was adopted.

Committees were appointed on temperance, slavery, tracts, Sunday schools, the bible, missions, and other matters pertaining to the wants of the conference.

The resolution previously offered by the Rev. Mr. Prescott, was then taken up and passed.

Several communications were then, in their order, presented by the bishop for the consideration of the conference, the most important of which was one from the Cincinnati conference, which contemplates the establishment, by the united action of all the conferences, an institution for the education of people of color.

Some time further was spent in the examination of the characters and passage of the preachers yet on trial, when the conference adjourned until to-morrow.

Janesville, Aug. 30, 1851.

THE WEATHER &c.—The extreme heat of a few weeks has departed, our nights are mostly cool, and frequently a fire is comfortable. Most of the time there is a cool drying wind, and the earth is as dry as it well can be.

The fall crops are probably past recovery; even if rain should now set in. Oats are light, corn, potatoes and buckwheat will be almost a total failure; and in consequence of the drying up of the pastures, the quantity of butter in this county must fall materially short of that of past years.—Delhi (Delaware Co. N. Y.) Gazette, 23d inst.

Boston, Aug. 20.
 The republican party met in convention, and appointed 150 delegates to the convention.—The delegates were instructed to urge upon the convention the passage of a resolution, calling upon the clergy to lend all the influence in their power to secure the colonization of the newly acquired territories of Kansas and Nebraska by free men.

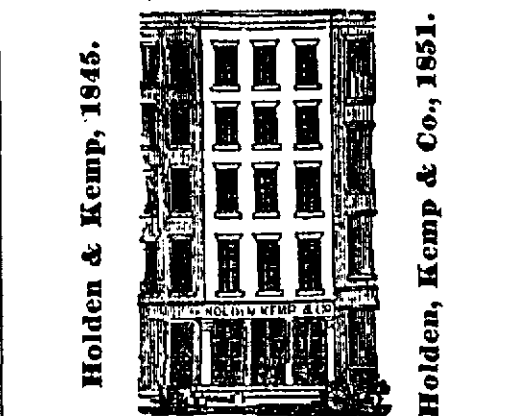

A specimen of the singular and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom at the national green-house in Washington. The blossoms are very large and yellow, with reddish brown spots, and are moved to and fro with every breath of air, so as to resemble very much the gaudy insect from which it derives its name. The plant was brought from the island of St. Thomas, in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

PISCATORY.—Mr. Merrill, who resides about three miles west of this village informs us that he went out recently on a fishing excursion upon lake Mendota. During the afternoon he caught eleven pickerel, the smallest of which weighed ten pounds, and the largest eighteen and a half pounds. We call this pretty good fishing.—Madison Jour.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

FIFTEENTH OF SEPTEMBER, 1851.

By Messrs. DARR & DORR, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by Wm. M. Dorr, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "The Wisconsin Home" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the Scientific American. We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The terms of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid, Wm. M. DORR, Janesville, Wis.

* Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.
